Agreement to Sales Terms

■ SECTION E: AGREEMENT TO SALE TERMS

All invoices are due on the date set forth thereon. ADI has the consent of the undersigned, acting on behalf of the Company and himself or herself to collect, use and disclose the information collected in Section C for the purpose of periodically assessing the creditworthiness of the Company and conducting a related credit investigation, which includes contacting the relevant bank and trade references, as well as obtaining periodic credit reports from the credit bureaus. ADI reserves the right to evaluate Buyer's credit at any time and if ADI deems, in its sole discretion, that Buyer's credit no longer supports the credit line, ADI may reduce, freeze or terminate the credit line. Buyer agrees to make all payments in a timely manner and acknowledges that all transactions between the parties shall be governed by the terms and conditions accompanying each invoice. If this account goes out of terms, notwithstanding any other rights ADI may have under law or in equity, Buyer agrees that ADI may assess, and Buyer agrees to pay late charges (not to exceed the lesser of 1.5 % per month or the maximum amount permitted by law), reasonable attorney fees, collection agency fees and other costs associated with its collection efforts. Thereafter, any amounts paid by Buyer shall be applied first, to the payment of all expenses and charges, including attorneys fees, incurred by ADI in the protection of its rights or the pursuance of its remedies; second with respect to late charges due and payable; and third, to the outstanding balance due under this account. All obligations of Buyer, if there is more than one Buyer, shall be joint and several.

The laws of the state of New York shall govern our relationship. The parties submit to the personal jurisdiction of the state and federal courts located in the County of Suffolk, State of New York. Buyer understands that it has the right to access and correct Buyer information held by ADI by making a written request to ADI and to withdraw its consent in writing to ADI's future access of Buyer credit information. Nothing herein constitutes a commitment by ADI to extend credit to Buyer, it being understood that whether ADI extends credit to Buyer shall be a decision solely within ADI's discretion. If ADI determines, in its sole discretion, to extend credit to Buyer, ADI reserves the right to revoke credit privileges and close an existing account without notice and for any reason or no reason. You and each principal have read and understand the terms of credit as indicated above and the transaction terms set forth in ADI's standard terms and conditions and agree to abide by them. Each principal is signing on behalf of the applicant as an authorized signatory and also in his/her personal capacity. Buyer represents to ADI that the Products will be used by Buyer only for lawful business purposes, and not for personal, family or household purposes.

■ SECTION F: NOTICE TO APPLICANT:

If your application for business credit is denied, you have a right to a written statement of the specific reasons for the denial, if such statement is requested in writing within 60 days from the date you are notified of the denial decision. To obtain the statement, please contact ADI at 263 Old Country Road, Melville, New York 11747 or call 800.545.6776 OPT #2. We will send you a written statement of reasons for the denial within 30 days of receiving your request. The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The federal agency that administers compliance with this law concerning this creditor is the Federal Trade Commission, Equal Credit Opportunity, Washington, DC 20580.
